ORDER

On July 20, 2012, Administrative Law Judge Lauren Esposito of the National Labor Relations Board issued her Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondent has engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that it take specific action to remedy such unfair labor practices.

No statement of exceptions having been filed with the Board, and the time allowed for such filing having expired,

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in her Decision, and orders that the Respondent, 3815 9th Avenue Meat and Produce Corp., d/b/a/ Compare Supermarket, its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall take the action set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.¹

Dated, Washington, D.C., August 15, 2014.

By direction of the Board:

Farah Z. Qureshi

Associate Executive Secretary

¹ On June 27, 2014, the Board issued an Order vacating the unpublished Order in this case, which issued on August 31, 2012. Subsequently, by order issued on August 5, 2014, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit granted the National Labor Relations Board's motion to dismiss the enforcement proceeding. Accordingly, the Board is now issuing a new unpublished Order in the absence of exceptions.
